

SJIS Sports Day 2016

For the past few weeks, SJIS has been abuzz with excitement and tireless preparations for the 4th Annual Sports Day, held on the 17th of April at Panasonic Sports Complex, in Shah Alam. The Wednesday and Thursday ECA and CCA slots respectively were dedicated towards march past practices, as well as other activities like costume and prop designing, as well as dance and cheer practices for the respective houses of Glasgow, Cambridge and Oxford.

The first sports day practice was held at Kampung Pandan Stadium on the 31st of March from 7:30 a.m to 3:30 p.m, where heats for track and field events were held, as well as march past practices later on. The second sports day practice on the 8th of April, was also held at Kampung Pandan Stadium from 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Interhouse competitions for basketball and futsal were held over the span of 2 weeks, starting with girls' futsal (open category) on the 6th of April held at the SJIS futsal court. The first place went to Glasgow, followed by Cambridge, then Oxford. On the 7th of April, the boys' basketball (junior and senior categories) competition was held at YMCA Brickfields, and both the junior and senior category champions were Cambridge. As for the junior category, Glasgow came 2nd and Oxford came 3rd, whilst Oxford came in 2nd and Glasgow 3rd for the senior category.

A week later on the 13th of April, the boys' futsal (junior and senior categories) competition was held, also at the SJIS futsal court, and where Oxford emerged as winners, followed by Glasgow and Cambridge for the junior category. As for the seniors, the first place went to Glasgow, followed by Oxford and Cambridge.

Lastly, the girls' basketball (open category) competition was held on 14th April at YMCA Brickfields as well. Cambridge took the top spot yet again, leaving 2nd and 3rd place for Glasgow and Cambridge respectively.

Sports Day started at 7:30 a.m. with march past and performances by the 3 houses followed by performances from Cheerleading club, Judo club, Taekwondo club and Wushu club. Track events for all classes, the long jump finals and tug-of-war for both boys and girls were held throughout the morning, with prize-giving ceremonies concluding the event at noon.

The house champion of Sports Day 2016 was the house of Oxford, leading at 349 points. The house of Cambridge came in very close at 2nd place, with 345 points. The house of Glasgow came in 3rd, with 298.5 points.

Congratulations to all the winners and to all our students for their tremendous effort and a job very well done. Till the 5th Annual Sports Day, I wish y'all well in your athletic and sporting endeavours!
